In a political point of view, all is right in this State, as we are convinced it will be throughout all the sieve States. Breeking ridge and Lanc, the immaculator representatives of "the Constitution and the Equality of the States," and who instead of breaking up the Union, intend to "strengthen and lengthen it," will earry this State by an overablehing majority from 25,000 to 35,000 votes. Since the Declaration of Independence so much has not been staked on the cast of a single die-so much affecting the hopes, and the interests, and the happiness of so many people.

Of course, as we write, it is impossible To more than guess at the result; and while we hope, as all should hope, for the best, we are not entirely without apprehensions of the worst. In any event, however, we believe the Presidential election just ter minated is deatined to mark the beginning of a new era ln the history of our country-an era in which the Constitution rescued from the hands of those who be lieve it but "a covenant with death and a league with hell," will be made the touchstone of political orthodoxy, and the test by which all political questions will be determined, and in which the union between States linked together by constitutional notinan open field and a fair fight, it may be, but in a decisive conflict, in which the latter were sided by the ambition of some and strengthened by the well-meant partianship of others. If Brackingtos, opposed as he was, by a portion of those who profess loyally to the Constitution, and standing on a platform that admits of no misconstruction, is elected, it is a triumph from which Black Republicanism can never re-

One Hundred Hours to the Pacific. It is stated from California That a contruct has been entered into with respons parties for the construction of two bundred miles of telegraph eastward along the valley of the Gila river, into tha Territory of Arizona. To the Gila, from San Francisco, the line has been for some tline under contract, and is now in operation as far as Los Angelos, so that by the time the first mentioned extension lecompleted, the whole line, from Fort Yuma for San Francisco, wili he opened to the

On this side, it is said negotiations are pending for the extension of the Stebbina line from Fort Smith, its present tarminns, to the Red river, Texas, whence to Fort Yuma will he a diatance of only some four of five hundred miles, which could be traversed easily in less than a hundred hours. Buteven should this act succeed, the gap between Fort Smith and the Gilals only a thousand miles, which would only double the time mentioned.

It is said, however, that both companies are agreed as to the polley of extending the line in both discreptions are agreed as to the polley of extending the line in both discreptions are agreed. There are agreed as to the polley of extending the line in both discreptions are agreed.

re agreed as to the polley of extending the line ln both directions as rapidly as poseible, and certainly it is for their best interests to do so. It is from the business of a through line that the profits of their business is ultimately to come. The imperfect llues now in operation, can pay but little more than the expenses of keeping The probabilities, therefore are that not only the eastern and western extensions mentioned will be rapidly carried forward, but that within the next twelve ha the intervening gap will also be closed. We shall then have a talegraph of our own, over the Southern route, the most feasible of all, with innumerable ram-ineatlons through Texas. The Cincinnati Gazette, a Black Republican paper, congratulates lis confrere, the Louisville Journal, on the way it "lashes the disunionlats." They both hate 'dleunionists," and have fought the Demoeracy with equal vigor during the canvass just closed. DAILY COURIER, Malian Emancipation - A Baolless STATE ELECTION-OFFICIAL. The disjointed molecules of the defeated lluly Alliance seem disposed to play over again, and to caricature the doings of their redecessors. Prussia and Russia have protested in Turin and Gaeta against the inscrutable and angovernable logic of events of which Barihaldi and Victor Emanuel are the exponents. Such a pro-test, ominous as it looks at first, will end In smake. Even if a enugress succeeds the protest, it can by no human means ar. rest the mighty current which sweeps over its lay and clerical tyrants.

Italy, and carries away, one after another, Protests and congresses have a meaning like mly when their decisions can be executed. Butler Vhen, In 1813, Austria, at the Congress in Prague, told Napoleon that he ought to enhinit and accept her offers of pacification made in the name of Prussia and Russia Austria backed her proposition by an ar. my of 250,000 men, ready for action at a day's notice. When the genuine Holy Alllance decided in Laylach to ernoh Italian liberty in Picdmont and Naples, General Austrians, and behind him the Russian and Prussian hosts were gathering.
